

FROGLEGS KCA

SUMMER CAMP CULINARY INSTRUCTOR

ABOUT THIS ROLE

WORK LOCATION: FROGLEGS STUDIO (OFF-SITE COMMUNITY LOCATIONS)

MT. BAKER NEIGHBORHOOD • RAVENNA • UNIVERSITY
VILLAGE, SEATTLE, WA

Magic In The Making

We are seeking an enthusiastic, organized, and safety-focused Summer Camp Culinary Instructor to lead our off-site “old-fashioned” cooking camps for children, ages 4–14. This is a hands-on leadership role requiring training and preparation to confidently manage a camp from start to finish.

Our camps run Monday–Friday from 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM. Campers will prepare their own lunch and afternoon snack each day, enjoy park outings, story time, and crafts — all within a structured, joyful, and safe environment.

- Part-time to full-time, depending on availability
- Primary works in the greater Seattle Area
- Teach children how to cook with confidence, creativity, and care.
- Execute lesson plans to ensure a smooth-running class.
- Engage warmly and professionally with families.
- Help create a well-rounded, positive experience for campers and parents alike.
- Adapt quickly in an ever-changing environment.
- Able to lift 40lbs
- Comfortable standing for extended periods

MORE ABOUT THIS ROLE

SAFETY FIRST

- First and foremost: Keep children safe at all times.
- Maintain kitchen safety standards and structured supervision.
- Manage transitions between cooking, park time, crafts, and lunch service smoothly and attentively.

CULINARY INSTRUCTION & LEADERSHIP

- Teach children how to cook with confidence, creativity, and care.
- Execute lesson plans to ensure a smooth-running class.
- Bring fresh ideas and enthusiasm to create a memorable experience.
- Serve lunch to campers and guide the closing treat experience.
- Lead park outings, story time, and craft activities.

LEADERSHIP & TEAM COLLABORATION

- Represent yourself as a confident, organized leader.
- Ensure your team is set up for success.
- Maintain a structured, organized camp environment.
- Communicate effectively with management on all class-related matters.
- Be responsive to internal emails and team communications.

PARENT ENGAGEMENT

- Engage warmly and professionally with families.
- Help create a well-rounded, positive experience for campers and parents alike.

OPERATIONAL EXCELLENCE

- Maintain quality control in:
 - Student experience
 - Class execution
 - Kitchen organization
 - Overall camp operations
- Adapt quickly in an ever-changing environment.
- Solve problems calmly and efficiently.

THE DETAILS:

WHO YOU ARE

- Enthusiastic, positive, and can-do
- Accountable, reliable, and honest
- Passionate about working with children
- Patient and attentive to detail
- Organized and capable of managing multiple moving parts
- Exceptional with time management
- Able to lift 40lbs.
- Comfortable standing for extended periods
- A true team player and leader
- Able to work under pressure while maintaining joy and professionalism

HOURS & SCHEDULE & COMPENSATION

- Hourly pay ranges from $22-$26 per hour, depending on experience, qualifications, and the responsibilities of the role.
- Monday-Friday (primarily weekdays)
- Camp runs 9:00 AM - 1:00 PM
- Instructor workday: 8:00 AM - 2:00 PM (setup & cleanup included)
- Part-time to full-time, depending on availability and versatility
- Summer-focused position with potential to continue during the school year based on long-term goals

Ready to join our team? Send us an email!

info@froglegskca.com

www.froglegskca.com

206.887.8228